Trusted Servant Reports:

Each group report from the acting chair is attached below:

Facilitator:

- Ken – Present. Reported:
 - Went over excerpt of Concept 3:

Third Concept

The NA groups delegate to the service structure the authority necessary to fulfill the responsibilities assigned to it.

The NA groups maintain final responsibility and authority for the service structure they have created. Yet if they must involve themselves directly in making decisions for all of our service boards and committees, the groups will have little time or energy left to carry the recovery message in their meetings. For this reason, the groups entrust the service structure with the authority to make necessary decisions in carrying out the tasks assigned to it.

The delegation of authority can do much to free up both our groups and our services. Service decisions not directly affecting the groups can be made expeditiously; our phonelines, H&I panels, public information efforts, and literature development projects can move forward at full speed to serve NA's primary purpose. And our groups, not required to ratify every decision made on their behalf at every level of service, are freed to devote their full attention to carrying the NA message in their meetings.

We often use motions and guidelines to help us apply the Third Concept. We clearly describe each task we want accomplished, and the kind of authority we are delegating to those who will fulfill the task. However, even the most exhaustive set of guidelines cannot account for every eventuality. Our trusted servants will serve us best when we grant them the freedom to exercise their best judgment in fulfilling the responsibilities we've assigned them. Our services must remain directly accountable to those they serve, yet they must also be given a reasonable degree of discretion in fulfilling their duties. A group, service board, or committee should consult its collective conscience in arriving at its own understanding of the best way to apply this concept.

- Concept 3 Guide is attached to the end of these minutes.

Co-Facilitator:

- Position Open – please bring back to your groups.

Secretary:

- Alex – Present. Reported:
 - Reminder went out regarding the CAR handout from last meeting – will send out another reminder and advise of due date when minutes are sent this month.
 - Can have Aaron post this to the Website as well.
 - Several groups requesting a format they can copy/paste into group chats – Alex will send out with minutes.
 - Proposal: Temporarily Combine Mail Liaison & Secretary Roles
 - Approach: Secretary already collects all cake dates, event updates and area announcements as part of the role, so this would be an easy transition. Noted however that in the spirit of rotation, would not want to permanently combine the roles.
 - Discussed: Members confirm other duties (pickup of materials, etc.) to ensure Alex is aware, Ken reads the role printed and Alex confirms. Agreed that the combining should be temporary so not to have to revise the guidelines, would be an Acting position.
 - Consensus: Agreed to have Alex assume Newsletter Liaison on an Acting basis.

Treasurer:

- Leanne – Present. Treasurer report is attached at the end of the minutes.

RCM 1:

- Jenna – Absent. RCM 1 Report is *Waived for the month of February due to unforeseen circumstances. Secretary advised by Jenna to speak on CAR Handout & status of submissions among groups.
 - CAR Update per Alex:
 - Mostly already discussed during secretary report; will send out another PDF version to GSRs, a copy/paste version for group chats (distributed upon request) and confirm due date upon distribution.
 - Tony (Tuesday Night Fireside) confirms that they sent a response this week because they thought the due date was today's meeting.

RCM 2: Position Open – please bring back to your groups.

Activities Chair:

- Dawn – Present. Report Attached at the end of these minutes.
 - Activities Report is further outlined below:

Activities Report Feb 1 2026

Concept Ten reminds us that our fellowship guarantees respect for the individual trusted servant and provides a spiritual process for addressing harm when it occurs within our service structure. While we strive to live by spiritual principles, we are human, and mistakes can happen. Concept Ten allows us to correct those mistakes with honesty, humility, and care.

After reflecting on this concept, I feel it is important to share a concern regarding harm caused to both myself and our Activities Treasurer. Statements were made outside of the Area meeting regarding alleged financial issues. These concerns were not raised during the Area meeting, nor are they reflected in the official minutes. At no time over the past six months were these concerns brought to me directly.

I do not believe any funds were mishandled. The implication that our Treasurer was unable to perform her duties, without following proper service process, caused unnecessary harm. Concept Ten exists to protect trusted servants from this kind of injury and to ensure concerns are addressed openly and respectfully. The bottom line: We perpetuate significant harm when we talk about our peers instead of talking to them about concerns.

Although this situation has been discouraging, I remain committed to my service position and to Narcotics Anonymous.

I believe in learning from our mistakes, making amends where needed, and recommitting ourselves to spiritual principles rather than personalities.

In the spirit of Concept Ten, I bring this forward so healing, accountability, and unity may be restored for the benefit of our Area and our fellowship as a whole.

As most of you know I just got back from vacation so I am asking for one more month to get my receipt together, I do have all copies of our monthly bank statements that I will be passing around the room at the time. I also will be giving access to Area treasurer visual access to our activities account.

We have a bingo event coming up on March 21, 7-9 pm right here Some great prizes to be won.

- A Copy of the Statement was passed around the room:

PI Report 21

Third Concept

THE NA GROUPS DELEGATE TO THE SERVICE STRUCTURE THE AUTHORITY NECESSARY TO FULFILL THE RESPONSIBILITIES ASSIGNED TO IT.

The NA groups maintain final responsibility and authority for the service structure they have created. Yet if they must involve themselves directly in making decisions for all of our service boards and committees, the groups will have little time or energy left to carry the recovery message in their meetings. For this reason, the groups entrust the service structure with the authority to make necessary decisions in carrying out the tasks assigned to it.

The delegation of authority can do much to free up both our groups and our services. Service decisions not directly affecting the groups can be made expeditiously; our phonelines, H&I panels, public information efforts, and literature development projects can move forward at full speed to serve NA's primary purpose. And our groups, not required to ratify every decision made on their behalf at every level of service, are freed to devote their full attention to carrying the NA message in their meetings.

We often use motions and guidelines to help us apply the Third Concept. We clearly describe each task we want accomplished, and the kind of authority we are delegating to those who will fulfill the task. However, even the most exhaustive set of guidelines cannot account for every eventuality. Our trusted servants will serve us best when we grant them the freedom to exercise their best judgment in fulfilling the responsibilities we've assigned them. Our services must remain directly accountable to those they serve, yet they must also be given a reasonable degree of discretion in fulfilling their duties. A group, service board, or committee should consult its collective conscience in arriving at its own understanding of the best way to apply this concept.

Sometimes we fear that delegation will mean a loss of control over our services. Together, Concepts One, Two, and Three have been designed to help us maintain responsibility for our service structure without tying our trusted servants' hands. The Third Concept encourages our groups to focus on their own responsibilities, while assuring that the service structure is given the authority it needs to fulfill other necessary NA services. Our Twelve Concepts do not ask our groups to abdicate their authority, allowing the service structure to do whatever it pleases. The groups, after all, have established the service structure to act on their behalf, at their direction. And when the groups need to exercise final authority in service matters, they are encouraged to do so. However, in day-to-day matters, the groups have given our service boards and committees the practical authority necessary to do the jobs assigned them.

Delegating authority can be a risky business unless we do so responsibly. To make Concept Three work, other concepts must also be applied consistently. Most importantly, we must give careful attention to the selection of trustworthy trusted servants. We cannot responsibly delegate authority either to those who are fundamentally incapable of administering that authority or to those who are not willing to account fully for their actions. However, if we select our leaders carefully, choosing those who can be trusted to responsibly exercise delegated authority in fulfilling the tasks we've given them, we can feel much more comfortable with the concept of delegation.

When we give our trusted servants a job, we must adequately describe to them the job we want done, and we must provide them with the support they need to complete their job. Then, once we've given them instructions and support, we must delegate to them the authority necessary to make decisions related to the task they've been assigned. When our groups delegate sufficient authority to our service structure, our groups need not be overcome with the demands of making every service decision at every level of service, and our fellowship's primary purpose can be served to the fullest.

With the Third Concept squarely in place, our groups are free to conduct recovery meetings and carry the NA message directly to the addict who still suffers, confident that the service structure they have created has the authority it needs to make the decisions involved in fulfilling its responsibilities.

EMAIL DRAFT:

Dear Principal Akune,

My name is Zachary Everett, and I am a former student of Burnsvie Secondary. I am writing alongside Ainslie Glass, also a former student, as volunteers with Narcotics Anonymous in the Langley region, where I serve as the Public Information Liaison within the SOFA (South of Fraser Area).

I'm reaching out to see if your school would be open to a brief conversation about Narcotics Anonymous as an informational community resource. Narcotics Anonymous is a free, confidential, peer-support program for individuals affected by substance use, or for those seeking information.

One initiative we are currently undertaking is placing a single copy of Narcotics Anonymous' Basic Text in high school libraries. The book is informational, non-graphic, and intended only as a passive resource alongside other wellness materials. There is no student outreach or school based programming involved.

Please let us know if you'd be open to setting up a meeting to discuss this initiative. We fully respect school policies and administrative discretion. If it is not appropriate for your school, we completely understand.

Looking forward to hearing from you.

Zach Everett
